

BIO FOR TOMEKA CAMERA RESHAY NAPPER

creative content, production, project management, and entrepreneurship.

Tomeka Napper is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of ViJIEN Enterprises Corporation (VEC), a strategic business design and management company for emerging businesses, nonprofits, entertainment professionals, and Square1 Media Group, LLC, a boutique brand, web, print, and marketing graphic design company located in the United States and The Bahamas. Surpassing the highest standards of professional integrity, she has served the corporate, higher education, non-profit and private sectors for over 24 years in the areas of office and accounts management, administration, television, brand marketing, procurement, Prior to VEC in 2005, Ms. Napper assumed the role of Vice President of Business Operations for Demo Entertainment Group (DEG). As a Managing Partner, she was involved in all aspects of strategic planning, contract negotiations, and event coordination for the company. In addition to DEG, Ms. Napper worked for Urgent, Inc., a 501(c)(3), youth and community development organization, dedicated to empowering young minds to transform their communities, located in Miami, Florida. Here, she was able to get back to the passion for community service and giving back that she enjoyed during her community college days in Phi Theta Kappa (2-yr International Honor Society) and the Honors Program at Miami-Dade Community College, (now Miami-Dade College). Moreover, at Urgent, Inc., her organizational and leadership skills were also cultivated by the executive team of the organization, where she was given the opportunity to grow and participate in program activities and events surrounding children and Grandparents Raising Grandkids.” In 2006, she worked for Broward County as an Administrative Aide for the Office of Information Technology (OIT), procuring items on behalf of the department and processing millions of dollars in payroll for more than 500 employees. From there she went on to work for Henningson, Durham and Richardson, Inc. (HDR) one of the top engineering firms in the U.S., in 2007, as a Relocation Administrative Aide, assisting Right-of-Way Agents in quality control and assurance, to facilitate relocation programs and enforce eminent domain actions on behalf of Florida Department of Transportation.

BIO FOR TOMEKA CAMERA RESHAY NAPPER

Ms. Napper currently serves as Treasurer of National Voices for Equality Education and Enlightenment, Inc. (NVEEE), a nationally recognized 501(c)(3). In the beginning of NVEEE's development in towards the end of 2009, she initially served as a consultant, in every aspect of their organizational development, and later served as an Advisor. She has also worked with the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival and Broward Cultural Arts Division, International Sales Group, promoted several rock concerts around South Florida with DEG, helped to produce and run three music industry conferences in Florida, California, and New York, and designed and produced three summer film camps for kids, and more. Her current clients and projects include, KALYBR, Inc., AUMusic.org, Classic Car Club Miami, Hemisphere Muzik, Through Black Eyes: Unfiltered-an upcoming podcast with Florida Civil Rights pioneers, educators, and brothers: Dr. Marvin Dunn and Dr. Raymond Dunn, Sr.

She earned a Masters in Entertainment Business from Full Sail University in 2009 graduating with a 3.9 GPA with two Course Director's Awards in Negotiation and Deal Making, and Entertainment Business Finance; a Bachelors of Music from the University of Miami with a minor in Business Law in 2004; and a Associates of Arts from Miami-Dade Community College, in 2000, where she served as President of Phi Theta Kappa and MEISA (Music Entertainment Industry Student Association), and was in the Honors Program.

In closing, Ms. Napper has also coached emerging businesses, nonprofits, entertainment professionals, and entrepreneurs using strategic solutions and simple action steps to build their confidence, execute plans, and increase brand recognition. She exercises/utilizes leadership and service skills daily; her professionalism and no-nonsense spirit continues to serve her well in her career. However, her biggest and most rewarding job in the entire world is being a mother to a beautiful teenage son, who deals with Autism and just recently graduated from Plantation High School. Currently considered high-functioning, her son is looking forward to studying Architecture and Mechanical Engineering for the next four years. "He's beautiful inside and out. He is my universe and stars; and I am so grateful for him. All that he is...I am." Ms. Napper is relentless in using her voice to powerfully advocate and raise awareness on Autism, Rape, Abuse & Incest, Human Trafficking, and Intellectual Property.